

THE TEACHING OF THE RAINBOW COLORS

The AUNDA-healer receives the capability to build up single colors or the entire Rainbow in a room. The colors of the rainbow can be used to support healing treatments as well as for the individual support of the healing process.

The required color or the Rainbow is built up indoors and remains so long as it is needed by the client. If the client leaves the room for more than three hours, the energetic color or the rainbow withdraws by itself.

The power of the Rainbow knows no limitations. The integrating of the frequency of the Rainbow colors into one's own energy field enables the AUNDA-healer to grow spiritually strong.

The effect of these divine frequencies of colors is three-dimensional. It is perceived as alternately pulsating from the outside to the inside and from the inside to the outside. Each color supports a specific part of a person at all three levels.

The frequencies of the Holy Geometry and the frequencies of the Rainbow Colors reinforce each other and obtain a still stronger vibration.
