

TEACHING 4 – The principle of divine leadership – Moses-Stick

The Fourth Teaching from the Spiritual Temple of Attilio Ferrara is again a big step closer to divinity. The Moses Stick builds the bridge to the impressive life of Moses, the leader of his people chosen by God. The Old Testament describes his story in detail. To follow the message of God means, to accept the principle of divine leadership at the moment and to unify it with one's inner being. The task to be a good leader of the chosen people can be only accomplished with unity of the divine principle. Resistance from the outside would be otherwise too large, the project would be doomed to failure. Moses accepted his task, reinforced by the signs of God, being on his guard against the threat of the dark side, and prepared to rise to future challenges.

According to this tradition, one can already guess the power of the Moses Stick. The Moses story gains a new significance by the power of Attilio Ferrara's Moses stick. This frequency even today shall powerfully touch the AUNDA-healers who accept the Fourth Teaching, so that they engage in the guidance of God.

The path through the Fourth Teaching makes the AUNDA-healers aware of the closeness of God's voice, which speaks unambiguously and with clarity. Accepting the symbols enables deep access to one's inner divine fire.

With the power of the Fourth Teaching the leadership of one's own heart is so strongly felt that the AUNDA-healers can recognize their task with great clarity. The belief in oneself plays a strong role; it strengthens one's own truth.

The Fourth Teaching consists of eight Consecrations and can be taken at different time intervals.
